- BPSB, NAACP, and other orgs were invited to support Yes on Proposition 31, the death to cigarettes and VAPes
- Supporting the Sacramento Council of Elders at Burbank High School
- Marian will attend MFM at John Slope

- Marian did a presentation at the National Baptist Convention.
- Marian met the staff at the District Enrollment Center about the importance of returning.
- Marian set up a table at the Juneteenth Celebration and reached out to dozens of parents and community members.
- Rayvn work with the DSC CA Parent Tabling

5-5. M

5-6. BPSB Executive Council Nomination - Ursula

Nominated Rayvn McCullough to the BPSB Executive Council. Rayvn is very active in the BPSB, is a member of the African American Advisory Board, and works with the principal of McClatchy High School. Motion carried: Rayvn McCullough to serve on BPSB Executive Council

6. OTHER ITEMS

We need to work with the First Five organization and network, which supports children from ages 0 to 5. They focus on reading and writing, and the overwhelming health of children and their parents.

Carl: (Chat Notes): First 5 California was created in November 1998 when California voters passed Proposition 10 to invest tobacco tax revenues in programs that would help improve the lives of children in California

MOTION: Darryl motioned for Darryl, LaShanya, and Marian to actively engage with the First Five Initiative. Motion seconded by Dr. Greg Spencer. Motion approved.

Dr. Greg Spencer: (Chat Notes): Darryl, great comments. Let me know how I can help.

Review with Jim Peterson about the Restorative Justice Initiative at UC Davis.

What other schools in the district have a restorative justice program?

Imani: United and Guided are contracted with the district to do conflict mediation.

7. COMMUNITY INPUT

Dr. Spencer, provides literacy access to children in the state of California.

Ursula: grateful for the meeting.

Sue: Anti-bias COVID money? What's going to really happen with the money?

Nikki: last year the district devoted a full day to Equity Training. This year the district is only devoting two hours of equity training. We were trying to get Affinity and EPIC training.

The district did provide some LGBTQ+ training, but they shot down the teacher union recommendations for additional training.

Darryl: we don't support the EPIC training because it's not comprehensive enough. We do support Affinity Training.

Mini Poole: glad to BPSB back. Would like to have two books.

Maria: trying to tutor a young man. Could use some support.

Gilberto: want a copy of the BPSB t-shirt.

Rayvn: thank everyone for being here.

Conrad: thanks for the work BPSB does. City of Sacramento Sac Town Youth Night to have youth events on Friday nights. Youth-led and adult support events.

African American Experience Project, a Sacramento oral project. They are looking for participants.

Food Justice Grant Program: deadline August 24th

Celebrate Oak Park, getting kids to connected to STEM programs. August 14th event for youth.

Aeisha: great to see everyone. Want to participate in Know Your Rights listening session.

Danielle: looking forward to September meeting.

Darryl: Ray Lozado's proposal to hire a School Safety office and Lead monitor for each school. We need to hear from Ray about the support he needs for Reimagining Safety in the district.
